GEORGIA
GULLINI
FINE ITALIAN FABRICS

2014 / 2015

As a fount of creativity and the crucible of some of Mankind's greatest creations, Italy is justifiably venerated.

Italy's vistas and landscapes have inspired painters, poets and romantics for centuries. Her monumental architecture has spawned replicas and homages. Her culinary creations are universally loved.

And Italian design and fashion, are always admired, often aped but never equalled.

Suffice it to say, that Italy is used to being the cynosure of all eyes.

Italy is used to being followed. So it's only natural that Italian fashion imbues its patrons with a similar perception.

The epicentre of dernier cri, Italian fashion accentuates style and character with its traditional lineage of fine Italian designers.

It combines the sweep of grandeur with intricacy of detailing.

Georgia Gullini has ushered in the finest in Italian fashion with a superlative line of premium suiting fabrics.

Don them and prepare to be followed.
